- b. Defacing, removing, destroying, altering, or covering another candidate's campaign materials;
- c. Slanderous, libelous, crude, distasteful, vulgar, or personal attacks against another candidate or candidates.
- d. Any of these acts of misconduct may result in a candidate's disqualification.

A candidate may only be on one ticket.

Tickets contain three (3) candidates.

In order to declare a ticket, candidates must complete and submit a CSUN Ticket Agreement Form to the CSUN Associate Director of Elections, Director of Elections or Operations, Faculty Advisor, or Business Manager as part of the Filing Packet, by the Filing Packet deadline.

Candidates are not permitted to campaign for or combine funds with any other candidate without a completed CSUN Ticket Agreement Form. Doing so may result in disqualification.

Each candidate shall be limited to $250.00 of expenditures on all campaign-related activity and materials . Endorsements are included in this total. No additional funds may be spent on behalf of a candidate. Failure to meet this requirement will result in request for disqualification.

Each candidate must submit a CSUN Expenditure Form to the CSUN office no later than 5:00 pm on Thursday, April 11, 2024. The form must be time-stamped accordingly. Failure to meet this requirement will result in a request for disqualification.

A ticket may submit one form for the whole ticket, provided every expenditure made by the ticket is included on the form. All ticket-mates must be listed on the form.

The expenditure form shall outline all campaign-related expenses, along with receipts for all materials and services that are purchased or donated. If receipts are unavailable for goods or services, candidates shall submit an approximation of their fair market value which is subject to the approval by the CSUN Associate Director of Elections and/or CSUN Director of Elections and Operations prior to the specified deadline.

Candidates may replace destroyed or defaced campaign materials without reduction of their budget if proper evidence is shown to, and approved by, the CSUN Associate Director of Elections and/or CSUN Director of Elections and Operations.

Candidates may only be formally endorsed by enrolled UNLV undergraduate students or student organizations which are recognized by SIA. As stated in Section I, formal endorsements involve money being given to a candidate to be used for campaign related activity.

Formal endorsements by student organizations are required to provide financial documentation of accounts received within the past 120 days in order to be eligible for providing financial resources for campaign related activity. Use of endorsements from non-UNLV entities, either directly or indirectly, will be considered a violation of the election rules.

Recognized supporters are people who campaign for the candidate at any given time during the campaign cycle. Candidates are responsible for the actions of recognized supporters. Candidates shall be held responsible for the actions of unrecognized supporters. Recognized supporters must abide by the same rules as candidates, with the exception of campaigning for other candidates. Candidates are obligated to register their recognized supporters with the Elections Commission at all times the Elections Commission shall continue without contest. No proxies will be allowed at the complaint hearing.

Complaint hearings are scheduled, pending complaints to be heard. Exact date, times and locations
