

UNLV Community-Based Research Faculty Award Overview

The UNLV Office of Government and Community Engagement seeks to support, facilitate, and promote collaboration, partnership, and engagement between the university and its many communities.

In support of its mission, the Office of Community Engagement is calling for individual nominations for the Community-Based Research Faculty Award. This award is given annually to one faculty member who has conducted community-based research. The selected recipient will receive a monetary award of $2,000.

To be eligible for this award:

- The applicant must be a faculty member (in any classification, full- or part-time), with one year or more of employment with the university at the time of application.
- The applicant must not have received the award in the last four years.
- The community-based research project must be a project that is ongoing or planned for the next year.